

Submission to the Statutory Review Committee on Access to Information and Protection of Privacy Act

Tuesday, August 19, 2014 (6:23 PM)

An e-mail from Rick Hiscott to the ATIPPA Review Committee

Subject: Suggestion that citizens should go to court

Dear Review Committee,

I cannot believe that the government thinks citizens should use the courts to obtain information. How many citizens have ever used the courts to obtain information from the government? This "requirement" effectively disenfranchises perhaps 99.99% of the electorate.

Sincerely,

Richard Hiscott
Retired Geology Professor and NL Citizen

Rick Hiscott

[REDACTED] Section 30
St. John's, NL [REDACTED] Section 30
Canada